

House of the True Way Martial Arts Academy

112 W. National Ave. Brazil, IN

(765)655-3643 HTWMA@yahoo.com

Gyodokan Kaizen Kempo - This style covers all ranges of fighting and the transitions between each. Kicking, punching, knees/elbows, and grappling including but not limited to joint locks, throws, take-downs, submissions, joint separation and bone smashing, pain compliance and anatomically weak areas of the body are key when the strategy and tactics of the style are understood in order to ensure victory over the opponent in all scenarios. You can understand more of Gyodokan Kempo by visiting:
<http://kamikazekarate.com/HTWMA.htm>

Gyodokan Schedule

Sunday, Monday and Wednesday nights

- 4:30 to 5:00 - kids 4-6 years old ($30.00 monthly)
- 5:00 to 6:00 - Juniors 6-13 years old ($45.00 monthly)
- 6:00 to 8:00 - Adults 13 and up ($60.00 monthly)

Dekiti Tirsia Siradas - DTS is taught in conjunction with the Gyodokan Kempo classes on separate days. Although Kempo is an Okinawan art, the Filipino art of DTS overall strategy and tactics blend well with the Gyodokan philosophy. Guru Duha' Mike Snow is the primary instructor in this course. DTS works with impact weapon, edged weapons, and firearms. Completing the techniques needed to be protected and prepared in all possible scenarios of violent confrontations. DTS is a close quarter combat and has existed for more than 200 years passed on by the Tortal family currently headed by Grand Tuhon Jerson "Nene" Tortal Sr. You can access more history and facts about DTS by visiting www.dtskali.com.

Dekiti Tirsia Siradas Schedule

Tuesday and Thursday nights

- 6:00 to 8:00 - Adults 13 and up (classes included with fees above)

You can learn more about our arts, as well as view a few teaching samples by visiting our YOUTUBE page, keyword HTWMA.